Yarn Expo Spring 2021 exhibitors' experiences

"As a raw material supplier, our business is closely related to Yarn Expo, so we participate every year. "Yarn Expo is an ideal trade fair that we have been exhibiting at for many years. At the fair, we can not only obtain more orders from customers, but meet with old and new customers. The overall visitor flow is much better than last year and we can see a great number of customers who didn't participate last year due to the pandemic."
